

23rd March, 2020

Dear table tennis community,

The New Zealand Government has announced that New Zealand is currently at Alert Level 3. At Alert Level 3, mass gatherings of any size are cancelled and public venues are closed. Therefore, the Auckland table tennis stadium is closed for all play effective immediately.

Alert Level 3 means at-risk people (such as those who are 70 years or older and those who are immune compromised) should stay home and not attend gatherings and events.

From 12:00am on Thursday 26 March New Zealand will move to Alert Level 4 - Eliminate. Any place the public congregates must close. This will apply for the next four weeks. Therefore, the earliest the Auckland table tennis stadium will reopen is Friday 24 April 2020.

Thank you for your understanding at this time. Stay safe.
