

Dear table tennis community,

We hope you are all staying safe and well at Alert Level 2.

It has been great to see table tennis back in action at the Auckland table tennis stadium since Saturday 16th May, 2020 now that New Zealand has moved to Alert Level 2. Thank you very much for your support and understanding over this time. Please refer to the Auckland Table Tennis Association 7-point plan for re-opening the Auckland table tennis stadium for information on playing table tennis at Alert Level 2:

At present only current stadium keyholder members can access the Auckland table tennis stadium due to restrictions on the size of gatherings. We are eagerly awaiting the outcome of the New Zealand Government Cabinet review of the Alert Level on 25 May 2020 to review our ability to increase the scope of the activities that we offer.

In the meantime, check out our flexible stadium keyholder membership options for joining the Auckland Table Tennis Association community:

We now offer a number of payment options including weekly payments on a 12-month contract, and 1-month, 6-month, and 12-month lump sum options. Please contact me at aucklandtt@xtra.co.nz for more information about joining as a stadium keyholder.

We look forward to seeing you back in the Auckland table tennis stadium!

Yours sincerely,

Shane Warbrooke
